

HEMA RAMOO, RAM INTERNATIONAL HAS BEEN SHORTLISTED FOR THE WOMEN IN IN REAL ESTATE AWARDS 2019.

RAM International announces that Director/Property Manager, Hema Ramoo has been named in Real Estate Business' Women in Real Estate Awards list of honourees for 2019 in Rising Star.

The Women in Real Estate Awards, the first national awards program to recognise the contribution of women in real estate, is dedicated to recognising excellence among the industry's top female professionals and companies that promote gender diversity and a commitment to the progression of women.

The finalist list, which was announced on Thursday, 09 May, features over 180 high-achieving real estate professionals across 27 categories.

REB editor Tim Neary said that the REB Women in Real Estate Awards is designed to show REB's support for the women in Australian real estate.

"It is a necessary new initiative to celebrate and recognise the female leaders, role models and future champions of the industry and to join the campaign for a more gender-balanced world," Mr Neary said.

"The awards provide a platform for women in the industry to showcase their talents. It is a great way to recognise the industry's high-performance female agents, property managers, BDMs and businesses."

"RAM International's recognition for its excellent contribution to the property management industry reinforces the strength of the brand in connecting with the community and engaging with its customers," he added.

Hema Ramoo, Director/Property Manager at RAM International, said she was humbled by the nomination.

The winners will be announced at a five-star gala dinner on 27 June at the Four Seasons Hotel Sydney.

